Add a Talk to your Calendar

You can add an individual talk or a list of talks to your calendar. This shows you how to add an individual talk to your calendar. If you add talks individually and changes are made to the talk these changes will not be updated on your calendar. You need to be logged in to add a talk to your calendar. To add a list to your calendar see the Add a List to your Calendar guide.

Find the talk

- 13:15 - 'A Closer Look' Tour
- 19:00 - Latvian Holocaust Survivor Profes
- 19:30 - The Peggotty Graham Concert: Iva
- 20:30 - THE PEGGOTTY GRAHAM CON

Find the talk you would like to add to your calendar by either using the search box or the Browse A-Z link on the left hand side of the page.

Add a List to your Calendar

You can add a list to your calendar. If the list is updated these changes will also be made to your calendar. You need to be logged in to do this. You can also add an individual talk to your calendar - see the Add a Talk to your Calendar guide for details.

Find the List

The screenshot shows the 'Oxford Talks' website. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'The University of Oxford > Oxford Talks'. Below this, on the left, is a sidebar with a search bar containing 'esting Talks Oxford' and a 'Go' button. Below the search bar is a 'Browse A-Z' link, which is circled with a black circle containing the number '1'. Further down the sidebar are sections: 'Manage your account' with links 'Edit your details' and 'Manage e-mail reminders'; 'Log out'; 'For talk organisers' with links 'Create a new list' and 'Add a new talk'; and 'Lists that you manage' with a link 'Nicole Harris's list', which is circled with a black circle containing the number '2'. On the right side of the page, there's a header for 'All of Today's Talks' with sub-headers 'Browse by Date' and 'Recently'. Below this header is a list of talks:

- 13:15 - 'A Closer Look' Tour
- 19:00 - Latvian Holocaust Survivor Professor George Schw
- 19:30 - The Peggotty Graham Concert: Ivana Gavric (piano)
- 20:30 - THE PEGGOTTY GRAHAM CONCERT

You can add a list that someone else has created and/or your personal list of talks to your calendar.

1. To find a list that someone else has created either search for it or use the Browse A-Z link on the left hand side of the page.
2. To add your personal list click on the name of your list under the Lists that you manage heading.

Sun 26 May 19:00: Latvian Holocaust Survivor Professor George Schwab

22 May 2013, 03:50:05

Latvian Holocaust Survivor Professor George Schwab

Introduced by Deputy Head of Mission of the Latvian Embassy to the court of St James, Mr Martins Kreitus

George D. Schwab, born in 1931 in Libau (Liepaja), Latvia, survived the Holocaust in Latvia and is founder and president of the non-partisan think tank National Committee on American Foreign Policy. For the past thirty seven years he has been the editor of American Foreign Policy Interests, its bimonthly journal. In the fall of 2001 the National Committee received a private endowment designed to honor the work of Professor Schwab which led to the creation of the George D. Schwab Foreign Policy Briefings. Speakers at the briefings range from heads of state, foreign ministers, ambassadors, officials of international organizations, and other foreign policy practitioners and experts. He serves on several committees of the Holocaust Museum in Washington, D.C., and the Latvian President's Commission of International Historians. In 2002 he received the Order of the Three Stars, Latvia's highest honor, in a ceremony held in Riga.
